

Tuition Rates for Credit Offerings at Study Abroad Sites

The Board of Trustees has delegated to the campus the authority to establish tuition rates for credit offerings at off-campus sites. Chancellor John White hereby further delegates this authority, in accordance with Board Policy 520.11, to the Associate Vice Chancellor for Financial Affairs for students planning to enroll in any University of Arkansas sponsored study abroad program. The Associate Vice Chancellor for Financial Affairs, in consultation with the program sponsor, is authorized to determine whether resident, non-resident, or a special rate shall be charged to participants of the study abroad program, consistent with program goals and costs.
