

University of Arkansas University Recreation + Wellness (UREC)
Emeritus/Retiree Membership Eligibility Guidelines

Membership Eligibility

All faculty/staff who have retired from the University of Arkansas-Fayetteville will be given a complimentary membership upon request. These memberships will be issued in annual increments. The retired faculty/staff member must present an Emeritus/Retiree U of A ID to obtain the membership. A retiree is any individual who has officially retired and is currently included on the retirement list provided by the University of Arkansas Human Resources Department.

Family Member Eligibility

Family memberships are available for spouse/partner and dependents, under the age of 26 and residing within the household. Spouse/Partner and dependents, age 18 and older can then access the building alone. In order to obtain a family membership, the pair must show documentation as detailed on the back of this sheet. A family membership may not be purchased without the presence of the initial membership. A family membership can be purchased during Membership Office hours of operation.

- Please see our website (<https://urec.uark.edu>) for current prices.

Facility Access

Members must obtain a University of Arkansas ID card from the Campus Card Office. The Campus Card Office is located on the 4th floor of the Arkansas Union. All members must present a UA ID or UREC App barcode upon entering UREC facilities.

A UREC membership provides access to:

- HPER Building
- UREC Fitness Center (ARKU location)
- UREC Sports Complex
- UREC Tennis Center
- Group Fitness Program - The membership allows unlimited attendance to all Group Fitness, Group Cycle and Mind/Body classes for the semester.
- Guest Pass at $10.00, with a limit of three (3) guests per visit
- Intramural Eligibility – Membership allows registration for all intramural programs. Family members are not eligible to register for intramural programming.

Member Services

Members are eligible to purchase lockers and towel service. Locker rental and towel service must correspond with the date of membership expiration.

Questions

For membership information, contact the UREC membership office at 479-575-4646.